To get to the public MandM web-page, simply go to the Friends website www.fosmw.com , and press the red [Music and Merriment] button.

The private web-pages are unlinked , however, there is a short-cut. At the very bottom left of all the main FOSMW web pages, including the concert pages, you will find a hyphen and a longer dash. Click on the left-hand hyphen and it takes you to the private MandM page. Click on the right-hand dash and it takes you to the Junior Choir page.

If that is problematical, then you can go straight to the private concert page URL, which is: <https://fosmw.com/concert/MandM24.html> and it has a link to the JC page.

Please keep this URL and the short-cut details private.

William would be very grateful if you could familiarise yourselves with the music before the rehearsal on November 29th. For that reason, Youtube links have been provided for those items we are performing. As mentioned previously, if you don't have 100 Carols for Choirs, a copy will be loaned to you at the first rehearsal.
